

Pilgrim's Progress: The Enchanted Grounds (pp. 164-173)

Page numbers correspond to the Whitaker paperback edition, ISBN 0-88368-096-3

I. Enchanted Ground “tended to make one drowsy”

Hopeful: “Sleep is _____.” (Ecc. 5:12)

Christian: “Let us not _____ as others do, but _____ and be _____.”
(1 Thes. 5:6)

II. Good Discourse “to prevent drowsiness in this place”

What is it that keeps saints awake in spite of hell? _____

Christian asks about Hopeful’s conversion experience:

When first brought under conviction by Christian and Faithful’s testimony and teaching, why did Hopeful at first shut his eyes?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

By shutting his eyes, Hopeful hoped to put out of mind the conviction that was settling on his soul, but what were the ‘many things’ that brought them new to his mind again?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

Hopeful’s solution: “I thought I must endeavour to _____.”

Hopeful discovered that “My now reforming will not _____.”

What debt does Hopeful become conscious that he still owes? _____

What other debt does Hopeful see if he ‘looks narrowly into the best of what I do now’? _____

Faithful told me I must “obtain the _____
_____.”

“He gave me a book of Jesus inditing.” indite = put into writing, Psalm 45:1 (KJV) translating a Hebrew word meaning more accurately “overflowing.”

“So I continued praying until _____.”

What was Hopeful's problem that caused him to pray so long for that which need only be asked once? What did he need instead?

"Then the water _____."

"What effect this had on your spirit?"

1. I saw that the world is _____

2. I saw that, in Christ, the Father can justly _____

3. It made me greatly ashamed _____

4. It made me love _____

5. It made me long to live for _____