

Gaius Welcomes the Pilgrims (pp. 312-339)

Page numbers correspond to the Whitaker paperback edition, ISBN 0-88368-096-3

I. House of Gaius “Christiana then wished for an Inn”

The inn-keeper was a _____ .

Great-heart: “The boys take all after their father, and covet to _____ in his _____ .”

What advice does Gaius give Christiana and her family? _____

What place does Gaius give women in the kingdom of God? _____

They sit down to meat in Gaius’ house. What do the various parts of the meal represent?

The heave-shoulder and wave-breast: _____

Red wine: _____

A dish of milk: _____

Butter and honey: _____

A dish of apples: _____

A dish of nuts: _____

What sort of conversation keeps the pilgrims up all night? _____

II. Slay-good “a giant that does much annoy the King’s highway”

They found him with one _____ - _____ in his hands.

Feeble-mind: “Because death did usually once a day _____ at my _____ , ... I betook myself to a _____ life, and have traveled hither from the town of _____ ”

Mr. Feeble-mind’s motto: “I have resolved on, to wit, to _____ when I can, to _____ when I cannot _____ , and to _____ when I cannot _____ .”

Gaius gave his _____ , _____ to James.

III. Ready-to-halt “with his crutches in his hand”

“I will lend thee [Mr. Feeble-mind] one of my _____ .”

Why did Mr. Feeble-mind hesitate and why was Mr. Ready-to-halt so good a companion for him? _____

IV. Vanity Fair “they were come within sight of the town of Vanity”

They stayed with Mr. Mnason, an old _____ . (Acts 21:16)

Mr. Holy-man said that pilgrims need two things: _____ and an _____ life.

Mr. Mnason gave his _____, _____ to Samuel and his _____, _____ to Joseph.

Why was Christian's name 'like to live in the world'? _____

Why were they able to abide in the Fair for some time? _____

After Great-heart and Mr. Mnason's Christian companions troubled the monster with seven heads and ten horns, how were they viewed in the Fair?

Yet, "there were some of the _____ sort, that could see no more than a _____, nor understand any more than a _____; these had no _____ for these men, and took no _____ of their valor and adventures."

"Well, the time _____ on that the pilgrims must _____ on their way..."

What do the various houses the pilgrims visited on their journey represent? _____

As they traveled on, the women and children were weaker, and so had to travel at a slower pace. "By this means Mr. Ready-to-halt and Mr. Feeble-mind, had more to _____ with their condition."